

Client:

Budapest Transport Co. Ltd.

Features:

Covered basic area:

Book pavilion: 21.80 m²

Bakery: 42.40 m²

Time of design: 1996-1997

Time of implementation: 1997-1999

Services:

- Architecture
- Interior architecture
- Structural engineering
- Building installation engineering
- Electrical engineering

Budapest Transport Co. Ltd had commercial-purpose kiosks made in spaces not used by the passenger traffic.

The structure of the kiosks is type SAPAFRONT aluminum profile with security glazing. The layout of the pavilions and their outer appearance were implemented by considering the local conditions and the tenants' requirements, matching with the architectural image of the particular underground station.